

YOUR PAGE OF COMICS

BARNEY GOOGLE

BARNEY'S LIABE TO WAKE UP AND FIND HIMSELF BROKE

(By Billy DeBeck)

TOOTS AND CASPER

THE PROFESSOR'S WISH IS GRANTED

(By J. E. Murphy)

POLLY AND HER PALS

MAYBE HE WAS WOUND UP TOO TIGHT

(By Cliff Sterrett)

THE BICKER FAMILY

MILT WINS!

(By Satterfield)

THE DUFFS

CHECK THE HAT?

(By Allman)

FRECKLES

HAVING A GIRL HAS ITS DRAWBACKS

(By Blosser)

THE NUT BROTHERS

(Ches & Wal)

WHY IS A GHOST LIKE A BOOTLEGGER?

BECAUSE IT'S FULL OF BOO-OO-S!

IN THE NEWS

MILLIONS DON'T EXCITE HIM—Rufus Coppock, fisherman, rests content with "Tipperary" in a little cabin at Plymouth, Mass., while attorneys are trying to prove that he is heir to the $15,000,000 estate of Bartholomew Coppock, collector of property in New York, New Jersey and Philadelphia.

THAT BERLIN WATER SHORTAGE—Some Americans laughed when they read about the water shortage that followed the Berlin water works strike. "Plenty to drink with the breweries running over there," they said. But here you see the Germans crowding to one of the few places where they could get drinking water.

DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS—When the schooner Gaspe left New Bedford, Mass., on a whaling expedition for a new movie, church services were held on deck and "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me" was sung, following a century-old custom. Here Rev. Charles S. Thurber of the Seamen's Bethel is taking the organ to the boat, accompanied by the church choir.

DOG IS HERO OF FIRE—The house of W. E. Mackey, Atlanta, Ga., caught fire. The only one home was Jack. He barked and barked until help came. He was badly burned, but a doctor took good care of him as the picture taken with little Miss Mackey shows.